THE HISTORY OF #8 CAYDEN VISS

At age five, Cayden Viss, recieved his first dirt bike. Cautious at first, it took some time before young Viss got up the courage to ride. However, just a year later Viss began racing dirt bikes competitively, and his love for the sport has only deepened with time.

Viss, the first in his family to race competitively, had to quickly adapt to the motocross lifestyle; training daily, serving bikes, and racing as often as possible. Viss, dedicated spent the early part of his racing carrer chasing the Oklahoma State Championship Title. Viss would go on to capture the title, winning in the 50cc 7-9 and 50cc 4-8 division. Viss further proved his abilities by claiming 3rd in the 65cc 7-9 division during his first competitive year racing a 65cc dirt bike. Viss, had great success throughout his time racing in the 65cc divisions, but in 2019 Viss made the decision to "race up," a class - competing on a larger bike with older competitors. However, Viss was not discouraged and his success has gradually grown and his upcoming season holds a lot of promise having already comfortably situated himself within the division.
